"I VOTED" STICKER DESIGN CONTEST WINNER

Oroville, CA - Keaton Denlay, Butte County Clerk-Recorder/Registrar of Voters, announces the "I Voted" sticker contest winner.

With 74 qualified submissions from local youth, ranging from kindergarten to 12th grade. Six selected designs were release for community vote on July 7th. During the community voting period the Elections Division received 680 votes with the winner receiving 190 of those votes.

We are excited to announce the Butte County "I Voted" sticker design winner, Brooke Jacobsen. Brooke's poppy design will be our "I Voted" sticker for both the 2024 Presidential Primary and General Elections. Congratulations Brooke!

Thank you to all of our finalists, you all did a fantastic job!
